

CBS should be fined a percent of the advertising gross income from the super bowl. Until you do that the entire nation will know you don't intend to do anything to protect the public. Do you want to be taken seriously or looked upon as a joke